How to decide what to do....

Our Focus:

Ultimately our purpose is to enable students to master key skills and the disposition to assist them in growing into healthy, happy, open-minded, engaged, thoughtful, collaborative, passionate, vibrant, critical, adaptive, dynamic and inspired...

people who lead great lives.

School leaders' roles are to try to make that happen every day, in every learning space and to advocate for the resources and support for learners and teachers....

I also need to advocate for students making their own decisions for what is best for them....

We also need to provide as much information to make good decisions for the future....

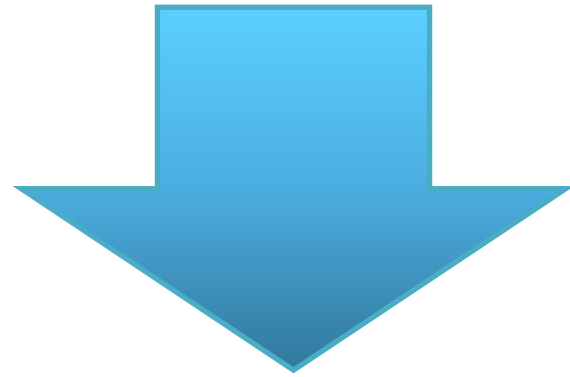

Times are indeed changing....

Old School and New School

The New “Hard” Skills

4 c's – communication, collaboration critical thinking, creativity

"Failure is an opportunity to grow"

GROWTH MINDSET

"I can learn to do anything I want"

"Challenges help me to grow"

"My effort and attitude determine my abilities"

"Feedback is constructive"

"I am inspired by the success of others"

"I like to try new things"

"Failure is the limit of my abilities"

FIXED MINDSET

"I'm either good at it or I'm not"

"My abilities are unchanging"

"I don't like to be challenged"

"I can either do it,
or I can't"

"My potential is predetermined"

"When I'm frustrated,
I give up"

"Feedback and criticism are personal"

"I stick to what I know"

Important decisions...

Advice from parents is not always correct about subject choices...

“WORKING HARD
FOR SOMETHING
WE DON'T CARE ABOUT IS CALLED STRESS.
WORKING HARD
WE LOVE IS
PASSION.”

- Simon Sinek
