30 April 2021

Dear Parent/Carer,

Year 12 Hospitality Food & Beverage students will have an opportunity to enjoy a sit down breakfast followed by a detailed tour of the William Angliss Institute and facilities. This is their opportunity to experience sit down breakfast and compare it with their own café experience at school. Breakfast as a service period is one of the requirements of their cluster tasks.

Details are as follows:

Date: Wednesday 19 May 2021

Venue: Restaurant Rubric, Level 1, 11 Bowden Street, Alexandria

Meet: Meet Ms Milovanovic at the restaurant at 7.50am.

Travel: Students to make their own way to venue by public transport or other means.

Finish: The students will travel back to school by train or other means of transport and return for period 2.

Wear: Full school uniform.

Bring: Topped up personal Opal card with sufficient funds for return public transport fares if required.

Cost: The cost is included in the Year 12 Hospitality Food & Beverage subject fee sheet and will show up on your Statement of Account, which may be paid via School Bytes.

If you have NOT yet paid for your Hospitality fees, please pay $5 now online by 6pm on Friday 14 May 2021 or at the front office by 2pm Monday 17 May 2021.

Note: Please return the permission slip below to Ms Milovanovic by Monday 17 May 2021 or place in the EXCURSION FOLDER (outside TAS Staffroom).
