Burwood Girls High School Mini Mind Matters Afternoon Tea

Thursday 3rd August (T3W3), 4pm-5:30pm
Room P1, BGHS, Queen St, Croydon
Come and hear about our projects and why you might like to start your own group at your school.

Name: Zea Norrish

Zea is a passionate young self-starter who has actively made changes to benefit our environment. Zea has created an environmental group at her school where they are now trying to install solar panels, get more recycling/ soft plastic/ compost bins and ultimately aims to help her school go plastic free.

Group Name: The Mini Mind Matters Group

Group Members: Inji Tasdemir, Lucy Olson, Samantha Lai and Amelia Pieri

The Mini Mind Matters is a proactive group of students from Burwood Girls High School who tackle the stigma associated with youth mental health. These students run mental health initiatives throughout the school and have successfully run RUOK and No Bullying Day at their school.

Acts of Inclusion

Acts of Inclusion isn't just about including people with a disability.

It's about making everyone feel included, no matter who they are.

Everyone is welcome to come along.

An Acts of Inclusion Initiative
